Medical Inflation, Workers' Compensation, and You:

Changes to Fee Scheduling and What They Might Mean

If you have been to a grocery store or paid a utility bill recently, you know that the cost of living is rising. But inflation doesn't just affect household goods; it is having an impact on the healthcare industry. The rising cost of medical equipment, facility operations, and healthcare staffing is currently reshaping the workers' compensation landscape.

An Attorney Who Stepped In When I Needed Help the Most!

I honestly cannot express enough gratitude for Attorney Brian H. Sumrall and what he has done for me!

When Brian took over my workers' compensation case, I was already in a terrible situation. My experience with my previous attorney had been extremely disappointing, and I was left feeling frustrated, overwhelmed, and uncertain about what would happen next...MORE P.T.
